About the Instructors

Hello! Our names are Brendan and Ian Klein and we are tennis enthusiasts. Like most people who get into tennis, we grew up watching our parents play and, when old enough, joined them on the court. We quickly fell in love with the challenge of keeping the ball in play and the importance of psychology in the sport. We both played competitively in high school for 4 years and now teach at Tennis and Life Camps at Gustavus, consistently rated as a top tennis camp in Minnesota.

Our coaching philosophy is that tennis should be fun, first and foremost. If you do not enjoy playing the sport, then you will not perform your best. In addition to fun, we strive to help students understand the theory and strategy of tennis so they can self-coach in matches and, ultimately, be able to coach others, too.

We look forward to assisting you with your tennis goals and we hope that you will find the same joy for playing tennis that we found!
